Notre Dame High School is an 11-18 highly successful and oversubscribed Roman Catholic school. As an Outstanding school, one of only 22 EEF/IEE Research Schools nationally, and a leading Teaching School in Norfolk, we seek to attract the best teachers and develop them with the exciting variety of opportunities which arise here.

We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed Learning Support Assistant with the flexibility and willingness to run intervention groups and in-class support to a wide range of SEN students. It would be desirable to have experience of English and Maths curriculum as well as knowledge of 6th Form academic need. They will join a vibrant and supportive SEN department.

Join us at Notre Dame and benefit from:

- a culture which values respect, honesty and kindness;
- great training, leading to great professional development and career progression;
- an outstanding quality of relationship between pupils and teachers, and between pupils themselves.

For an application form and further details including a job description and person specification, please visit our website at www.ndhs.org.uk.

Preliminary queries regarding the post are welcome by arrangement with Mrs Kelly Aldred, SENCo. kaldred@ndhs.org.uk

Closing date: Monday 10th December 12.30pm Interview date: Likely to be Friday 14th December

Notre Dame High School welcomes applications from members of minority ethnic communities and those with disabilities. The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Enhanced DBS clearance is required for appointment to this post.
