SPEAKERS AND PERFORMERS

The Sybil Collective

The Sybil Collective is a new Catholic community of musicians committed to contemporary praise and worship. We are pleased to welcome them to the Ignite Festival.

Andy Kind

Andy Kind is an award-winning comedian, preacher and author who has been featured on BBC, ITV and Channel 4. He has performed at over two-thousand gigs and this is his second time at the Ignite Festival.

Father Alvan Ibeh

Fr Alvan is a priest in Great Yarmouth, Norfolk. What sets him apart from most priests is that he is also a musician with five albums under his belt! We are looking forward to our gig with him on Saturday night.

Sr. Catherine Williams

Sr Catherine is a familiar face to the Ignite Festival, having led the Ignite Team for three years. She is now part of the Community of Our Lady of Walsingham, based here in our diocese, but is an in-demand speaker all over the country.

Steve Murray

A firm favourite of previous Ignite Festivals who we are delighted to welcome back. Steve Murray is a Christian mime artist and speaker whose powerful performances are both inspirational and thought-provoking.

Bishop Peter Collins

Bishop Peter is our bishop and the fourth Bishop of East Anglia. We are privileged that he is taking time out of his busy schedule to be with us this weekend.

Inna Liubeta

In February 2022 Inna had to flee from Ukraine as war broke out. She now lives in London. We are honoured to have her come and share her experiences of how her faith has helped her.

Father Luke Goymour

Another familiar face to the Ignite Festival, Fr Luke has been involved with the Diocesan Youth Service for over twenty years. He is now priest of St Mark's and St Mary Magdalene's parishes in Ipswich and a gifted preacher.

And not forgetting Adam and Alex from the Ignite Team, Ignite Lite, volunteers, all our workshop leaders, sisters, priests and deacons who are serving our festival!

Making a difference - we can!

CAFOD really can make a difference.

How can I set the Downtrodden (modern slaves), Free?

Did you know that in East Anglia alone there are estimated to be around 8,600 people trapped in Modern Slavery? In this workshop, we will look at safe and practical ways to be aware of modern slavery in our neighbourhood and what we can do to help free people.

Learn how to mime

Impress your friends by learning how to mime 'the wall' and much more. Led by a professional mime artist.

What's God's plan for my life?

How do you know what God wants you to do with your life? Sisters from the Community of Our Lady of Walsingham share the joy and sweetness of discovering your Vocation and saying Yes to God.

Shroud of Turin: Burial Cloth of Christ or Medieval Fake?

Find clues to try and resolve this centuries-old mystery. Is the Shroud of Turin the real-life cloth that Jesus was buried in? Science meets faith in this interactive workshop.

Rosary Making

Come and make your own rosary to keep.

Prayer

The lifeblood of our faith, yet sometimes we can find it difficult. Come to this workshop to explore what prayer is and different ways to pray.

Moulding the Gospel

Praise and worship music with the Sibyl Collective

If you like modern Christian praise and worship music, and can sing or play, come along and join in!

Study Room

If you have to revise or have a lot of work on, we have set aside a supervised silent room to study in instead of doing workshops. You may choose this for both workshop /activity sessions.
