PREPARING FOR MARRIAGE IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Welcome to marriage preparation in the Diocese of East Anglia! This programme is an extensive and comprehensive preparation for Catholic marriage.

For all queries please contact the Marriage and Family Life Coordinator:
Antonia Braithwaite mflcoordinator@rcdea.org.uk

The full course consists of both:

1. One full Saturday Day.

During this day we will cover the theology of marriage and marital love, as well as practical marriage skills including communication issues, financial management, conflict resolution, addressing the past, theology of the body, sexuality and more. You do not need to bring anything along to this day, just yourselves!

These Saturday sessions take place in Our Lady Immaculate and St Etheldreda Church in Newmarket. Each Saturday Day is identical in content, please choose the date that works best for you.

At the end of the Saturday Day you will be given a certificate that you should show as proof of attendance to the Priest who is arranging your paperwork.

(nb: not all parishes offer these sessions).

3. Can I attend either the course or the Saturday Day?

The full course consists of both the Saturday Day course and also the parish-based So Great A Mystery course, as they cover different topics.

NB: Some parishes are unable to offer the So Great A Mystery course all year round, in which case the Saturday Day course alone will be accepted.

4. Do I have to attend the course before the Saturday Day?

No, they cover different topics so it doesn't matter which one you do first.

5. How do I book for the So Great A Mystery parish course?

These classes are done at a local parish level, so please contact your local Catholic parish church.

6. What if only one of us can attend the Saturday Day?

The Saturday Day consists of couple work which you both do together on the day, so it is vital that you both attend the Saturday Day together. But if one of you is abroad and therefore unable to attend, then you can come alone.

7. What if we are unable attend either the Saturday Day or the parish sessions?

If you are unable to attend any of the face-to-face courses offered by the Diocese, then please contact Antonia Braithwaite mflcoordinator@rcdea.org.uk

8. How soon before my wedding do I need to do the marriage preparation course?

You can attend a marriage preparation course any time about two years before your wedding. But please note that the official paperwork can only be dated a maximum of six months before your wedding date.

9. How soon before my wedding do I need to meet with the Priest to do my paperwork?

The Church paperwork which the Priest fills in for you cannot be dated more than six months before your wedding.

10. What happens once we have finished the marriage preparation course?

Once you have completed the marriage preparation course, you will receive a certificate, and your Parish Priest can finalise your paperwork.

Couples need to meet with their local Parish Priest in East Anglia to do their paperwork even if they are getting married elsewhere, as it is the responsibility of the Diocese where the couple live to do their documentation, not the Diocese in which they are getting married. The completed paperwork will then be sent to the Diocese where the couple are planning on getting married.

11. What paperwork do I need to have ready for the appointment with the Priest?

At the appointment with the Priest please ensure you each have the following documents with you: (NB: not all of these may be relevant to you).

Please note: originals copies only, no photocopies or scans. They do not need to be translated into English; the original language is acceptable.

- Marriage Preparation Certificate of Completion
- Passport/ID
- A cheque for £20 made payable to 'RC Diocese of East Anglia' (if needed. See questions below)
- Baptism certificate*

*This must be an original. It does not need to be translated into English. You will need to contact the Church where you were baptised and explain that you are getting married and ask them to issue you with a baptism certificate for marriage. This certificate should be dated a maximum of 6 months before your wedding date and it needs to indicate the date and place of baptism, whether or not you have been Confirmed as well as any details regarding previous marriages or ordination or religious vows.

- Pre-Nuptial Information Form \(Click here to find PDF download\) **

 Fill in all your personal details but do not sign anything on this form. You will sign it in front of your Parish Priest.

- Statutory Declaration of Freedom to Marry Form  \(Click here to find PDF download\)

Print off one copy each. This form needs to be completed before a Solicitor/Public Notary/Commissioner of Oaths. You need to Google a convenient one and make an appointment with any one of them. Then take the forms with you and your fiancé and you need to sign it in front of them.

NB: If you are already civilly married you do not need to complete this form. Also, if you are getting married abroad and are required to prove your legal freedom to marry in that country/ consulate/ embassy then that paperwork is sufficient.

- Annulment paperwork (if relevant)
- Legal marriage certificate (if you are already civilly married)

12. My fiancé was baptised in a non-Catholic Church, does s/he need to obtain a baptism certificate dated six months before our wedding?

No. It would be ideal if they were able to get a certificate dated six months before the wedding confirming their baptism, but if they are unable to, then their original certificate from the day they were baptised will suffice even if it is many years old.

13. I am getting married outside this Diocese, can the Priest in that Church do my paperwork?

The Church norms are that the Diocese where you live is responsible for doing your paperwork. This will then be sent to the Diocese where you are getting married. So you should contact your local Parish Priest here in East Anglia to do your paperwork.

14. What happens at the appointment with my Parish Priest?

Once you have completed the marriage preparation course you will need to make an appointment with your Parish Priest or his Assistant Priest and take with you all the relevant paperwork listed in Question 11 above (this is vital!).

In front of the priest you then sign the Declaration at the bottom of Page 2 of the Pre-Nuptial Information Form, and if only one of you is a Catholic, then the Catholic must make the promise before the priest on the bottom of Page 3.

15. What is the process if I am getting married:

- in my local Catholic Parish here in East Anglia
- in another Catholic Church in East Anglia
- in another Catholic Church in England and Wales?

If you are getting married in your own Catholic Parish here in East Anglia then the signed paperwork stays with your Parish Priest (unless you require a Dispensation or Permission, in which case he will send the paperwork to the Chancellor, and it will then be returned to the Parish Priest).

If you are getting married in a different Catholic Parish in the Diocese of East Anglia where you are not parishioners then your Parish Priest will grant permission for you to do so (page 4 on the Pre-Nuptial Form) and then send the paperwork to the Parish Priest in East Anglia where you intend to marry. (unless you require a Dispensation or Permission, in which case he will send the paperwork to the Chancellor, and it will then be returned to the Parish Priest).

If you are getting married in a Catholic Parish outside of East Anglia, but within the Episcopal Conference of England and Wales, then your Parish Priest will grant permission for you to do so (page 4 on the Pre-Nuptial Form) and send your paperwork to the Chancellor, who will then send it directly to the parish where the marriage will take place.

NB: you will need to provide a £20 cheque made payable to 'RC Diocese of East Anglia' which you should provide to your Priest, which he will send to the Chancellor.

16. What is the process if I am getting married somewhere else in the world and not in England and Wales?

Once you have completed the marriage preparation courses and signed all the documents in front of your Parish Priest, he must send them all to the Chancellor including a £20 cheque which you should provide made payable to 'RC Diocese of East Anglia'.

The Chancellor will check all your documentation to see it is correct and deal with any Dispensations or Permissions that you require. He will then prepare a letter to the Chancellor in the Diocese where you are intending to marry, wherever that may be around the world.

All this paperwork will then be sent back to your Parish Priest in East Anglia with an accompanying letter and a special envelope to be used by a courier service. Your Parish Priest will then give the documents to you and you are to arrange for a courier to collect them.

The courier will provide you with a Tracking Number and then the Chancellor of the Diocese in which you will be married or a member of the Diocesan Curia will sign for it. It works beautifully so do not panic. Most couriers are able to deliver anywhere in the world within five working days. Once the paperwork has arrived at the Diocese where you will be married the Chancellor there will send it to the exact Parish where you will be married. We aim for the paperwork to arrive about 4 weeks before the wedding date

PLEASE DO NOT: Send the documents using the Postal Service. Once post leaves this country there is no way of assuring it will reach its destination on time (we have much experience of this happening!). It needs to be sent as a tracked delivery using a courier service (e.g. DHL).

PLEASE DO NOT: give the documents to relatives to deliver or try to take them personally yourself to the Diocese where you are getting married. We have had this happen and the documents will be rejected and refused by the receiving Diocese because they could have been interfered with. The documents are considered the personal correspondence of the Chancellor of East Anglia to the Chancellor in the receiving Diocese, so they must be couriered directly and not hand delivered.

17. What is the timescale for the paperwork?

The Priests will complete your paperwork only after you have completed your marriage preparation course.

If you are getting married abroad, we aim for it to arrive in the Diocese where you are getting married about one month before your wedding date.

18. I am marrying a non-Christian, do I need to do any extra paperwork?

Your Parish Priest will need to seek a Dispensation from Disparity of Worship from the Chancellor, but he will arrange that when he meets with you. You don't need to prepare anything in advance.

19. I am marrying a non-Catholic baptized Christian, do I need to do extra paperwork?

The priest will need to seek Permission for you from the Chancellor of the Diocese, but he will arrange that at your appointment with him. You don't need to prepare anything in advance.

20. We are already civilly married, do we need to complete the Statutory Declaration of Freedom to Marry form?

No. Please bring your civil marriage certificate to the appointment with the Priest.

21. We have already completed a Statutory Declaration of Freedom to Marry form in a different country/embassy/consulate, do we need to do another one here?

No, that will be acceptable. Please bring it to the appointment with the Priest.

22. What is the earliest I can see the Priest?

Maximum of six months before the wedding once you have completed the preparation course and have your certificates and paperwork ready.

23. We are from the Syro-Malabar Rite, do we need to do any extra paperwork?

No

24. I have been previously married but have now divorced and received an annulment. Do I still fill in the Declaration of Freedom to Marry form?

Yes, but write on the form that you have received an annulment.
Make sure you bring your annulment paperwork with you to the appointment with the Priest.

25. I was previously married but now my spouse is deceased.

If there has been a previous spouse, who is now deceased, the priest will need a copy of their death certificate.

26. I would like to be Confirmed, how can I go about organising that?

It is a good thing to be Confirmed and you are encouraged to be confirmed before your wedding if possible. Contact your Parish Priest as soon as possible to speak to him about that.

27. Can you suggest any readings for our wedding ceremony?

You can usually choose your own readings for your wedding.

The Liturgy of the Word during Mass consists of the following readings:

- A First Reading from the Old Testament
- A Responsorial Psalm (usually sung by a cantor while the congregation respond)
- A Second Reading from the New Testament
- A Gospel Reading from one of the four Gospels
- Prayer of the Faithful

All readings must come from the Bible, and can not be replaced by any other text.

Below I have listed suggestions for the First Reading, Responsorial Psalm, Second Reading, Gospel and Prayer of the Faithful.

Please discuss your selections with the priest who will be celebrating your wedding.

OLD TESTAMENT READING:

GENESIS 1:26-28, 31

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Then God said:

"Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.
Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea,
the birds of the air, and the cattle,
and over all the wild animals and all the creatures that crawl on the ground."

God created man in his image;
in the divine image he created him;
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, saying:

"Be fertile and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it.
Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air,
and all the living things that move on the earth."

God looked at everything he had made,
and he found it very good.

The word of the Lord

OLD TESTAMENT READING:

GENESIS 2:18-24

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The LORD God said:

"It is not good for the man to be alone.

I will make a suitable partner for him."

So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them;

whatever the man called each of them would be its name.

The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air,
and all the wild animals;

but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man.

So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man,
and while he was asleep,

He took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.

The LORD God then built up into a woman
the rib that he had taken from the man.

When he brought her to the man,
the man said:

"This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;
this one shall be called 'woman,'

for out of 'her man' this one has been taken."

That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one body.

OLD TESTAMENT READING:

GENESIS 24:48-51, 58-67

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The servant of Abraham said to Laban:

"Then I bowed down in worship to the LORD,
blessing the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me on the right road
to obtain the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son.
If, therefore, you have in mind to show true loyalty to my master, let me know;
but if not, let me know that, too.
I can then proceed accordingly."

Laban and his household said in reply:

"This thing comes from the LORD;
we can say nothing to you either for or against it.
Here is Rebekah, ready for you; take her with you,
that she may become the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has said."
So they called Rebekah and asked her,
"Do you wish to go with this man?"

She answered, "I do." At this they allowed their sister Rebekah and her nurse to take leave, along with Abraham's servant and his men.

Invoking a blessing on Rebekah, they said:

"Sister, may you grow into thousands of myriads;
and may your descendants gain possession of the gates of their enemies!"

Then Rebekah and her maids started out;
they mounted their camels and followed the man.
So the servant took Rebekah and went on his way.

Meanwhile Isaac had gone from Beer-lahai-roi and was living in the region of the Negeb.

One day toward evening he went out. . . in the field,
and as he looked around,
he noticed that camels were approaching.

Rebekah, too, was looking about, and when she saw him,
she alighted from her camel and asked the servant,
"Who is the man out there, walking through the fields toward us?"

"That is my master," replied the servant.

Then she covered herself with her veil.

The servant recounted to Isaac all the things he had done.

Then Isaac took Rebekah into his tent;
he married her, and thus she became his wife.

In his love for her Isaac found solace after the death of his mother Sarah.

OLD TESTAMENT READING:

TOBIT 7:6-14

A reading from the book of Tobit.

Raphael and Tobiah entered the house of Raguel and greeted him.

Raguel sprang up and kissed Tobiah, shedding tears of joy.

But when he heard that Tobit had lost his eyesight,
he was grieved and wept aloud.

He said to Tobiah:

“My child, God bless you! You are the son of a noble and good father.

But what a terrible misfortune that such a righteous and charitable man should be afflicted with blindness!”

He continued to weep in the arms of his kinsman Tobiah.

His wife Edna also wept for Tobit; and even their daughter Sarah began to weep.

Afterward, Raguel slaughtered a ram from the flock and gave them a cordial reception.

When they had bathed and reclined to eat, Tobiah said to Raphael,

“Brother Azariah,

Ask Raguel to let me marry my kinswoman Sarah.”

Raguel overheard the words; so he said to the boy:

“Eat and drink and be merry tonight,

For no man is more entitled to marry my daughter Sarah than you, brother.

Besides, not even I have the right to give her to anyone but you, because you are my closest relative.

But I will explain the situation to you very frankly.

I have given her in marriage to seven men, all of whom were kinsmen of ours, and all died on the very night they approached her.

But now, son, eat and drink. I am sure that Lord will look after you both.”

Tobiah answered, “I will eat or drink nothing until you set aside what belongs to me.”

Raguel said to him: “I will do it. She is yours according to the decree of the Book of Moses.

Your marriage to her has been decided in heaven! Take your kinswoman; from now on you are her love, and she is your beloved.

She is yours today and ever after. And tonight, son, may the Lord of heaven prosper you both.

May he grant you mercy and peace.”

Then Raguel called his daughter Sarah, and she came to him.

He took her by the hand and gave her to Tobiah with the words:

“Take her according to the law.

According to the decree written in the Book of Moses she is your wife.

Take her and bring her back safely to your father.

And may the God of heaven grant both of you peace and prosperity.”

He then called her mother and told her to bring a scroll, so that he might draw up a marriage contract stating that he gave Sarah to Tobiah as his wife

according to the decree of the Mosaic law.

Her mother brought the scroll, and he drew up the contract, to which they affixed their seals. Afterward they began to eat and drink.

The Word of the Lord.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

TOBIT 8:4b-8

A reading from the book of Tobit.

On their wedding night Tobiah arose from bed and said to his wife, "Sister, get up. Let us pray and beg our Lord to have mercy on us and to grant us deliverance."

Sarah got up, and they started to pray and beg that deliverance might be theirs.

They began with these words:

"Blessed are you, O God of our fathers;
praised be your name forever and ever.
Let the heavens and all your creation praise you forever.

You made Adam and you gave him his wife Eve to be his help and support;
and from these two the human race descended.

You said, 'It is not good for man to be alone;
let us make him a partner like himself.'

Now, Lord, you know that I take this wife of mine not because of lust, but for a noble purpose.

Call down your mercy on me and on her,
and allow us to live together to a happy old age."
They said together, "Amen, amen."

The word of the Lord.

OLD TESTAMENT READING:

PROVERBS 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

A reading from the book of Proverbs.

When one finds a worthy wife,
her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,

all the days of her life.

She obtains wool and flax and makes cloth with skillful hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her a reward of her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.

The word of the Lord.

OLD TESTAMENT READING:

SONG OF SONGS 2:8-10, 14, 16a; 8:6-7a

A reading from the Song of Songs.

Hark! my lover
– here he comes
springing across the mountains,
leaping across the hills.
My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Here he stands behind our wall,
gazing through the windows,
peering through the lattices.
My lover speaks; he says to me,
"Arise, my beloved, my beautiful one, and come!
"O my dove in the clefts of the rock,
in the secret recesses of the cliff,

Let me see you,
let me hear your voice,
For your voice is sweet,
and you are lovely."

My lover belongs to me and I to him.
He said to me:
"Set me as a seal on your heart,
as a seal on your arm;
For stern as death is love,
relentless as the nether-world is devotion;
its flames are a blazing fire.
Deep waters cannot quench love,
nor floods sweep it away.

The word of the Lord.

OLD TESTAMENT READING:

SIRACH 26:1-4, 13-16 B8

A reading from the book of Sirach.

Blessed the husband of a good wife,
twice-lengthened are his days;
A worthy wife brings joy to her husband,
peaceful and full is his life.
A good wife is a generous gift bestowed upon him who fears the LORD;
Be he rich or poor, his heart is content,
and a smile is ever on his face.
A gracious wife delights her husband,
her thoughtfulness puts flesh on his bones;
A gift from the LORD is her governed speech,
and her firm virtue is of surpassing worth.
Choicest of blessings is a modest wife, priceless her chaste soul.
A holy and decent woman adds grace upon grace;
indeed, no price is worthy of her temperate sou.

Like the sun rising in the LORD'S heavens,
the beauty of a virtuous wife is the radiance of her home.

The word of the Lord.

OLD TESTAMENT READING:

JEREMIAH 31:31-32, 33-34

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah.

The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.
It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers:
the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt.
But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD.
I will place my law within them,
and write it upon their hearts;
I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives
how to know the LORD.
All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the LORD

The word of the Lord.

The psalm might also be read out and not sung.

ROMANS 8:31-35, 37-39

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Romans.

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?

It is God who acquits us. Who will condemn? It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things, we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

ROMANS 12:1-2, 9-18 (Longer)

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Romans.

I urge you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Let love be sincere; hate what is evil, hold on to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; anticipate one another in showing honour. Do not grow slack in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the holy ones, exercise hospitality. Bless those who persecute you, bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Have the same regard for one another; do not be haughty but associate with the lowly; do not be wise in your own estimation.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil; be concerned for what is noble in the sight of all. If possible, on your part, live at peace with all.

ROMANS 15:1b-3a, 5-7, 13

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

Brothers and sisters:

We ought to put up with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves; let each of us please our neighbor for the good, for building up. For Christ did not please himself. May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to think in harmony with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus, that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the holy Spirit.

1 CORINTHIANS 6:13c-15a, 17-20

A reading from the first letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

Brothers and sisters: The body is not for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body; God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

Avoid immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the immoral person sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been purchased at a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body.

The word of the Lord.

NEW TESTAMENT READING:

1 CORINTHIANS 12:31-13:8a

A reading from the first letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts. But I shall show you a still more excellent way. If I speak in human and angelic tongues but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind.

It is not jealous, love is not pompous,

it is not inflated, it is not rude,

it does not seek its own interests,

it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth.

It bears all things, believes all things,

Hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never fails.

EPHESIANS 4:1-6

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace: one Body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

The word of the Lord.

NEW TESTAMENT READING:

EPHESIANS 5:2a, 21-33 – longer

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

Brothers and sisters: Live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us. Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Wives should be subordinate to their husbands as to the Lord. For the husband is head of his wife just as Christ is head of the church, he himself the savior of the body. As the church is subordinate to Christ, so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything.

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies.

He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body.

"For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh."

This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church. In any case, each one of you should love his wife as himself, and the wife should respect her husband.

PHILIPPIANS 4:4-9

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians.

Brothers and sisters:

Rejoice in the Lord always.

I shall say it again: rejoice! Your kindness should be known to all.

The Lord is near. Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

NEW TESTAMENT READING:

COLOSSIANS 3:12 –17

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians.

Brothers and sisters: Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.

And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body.

And be thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

The word of the Lord.

NEW TESTAMENT READING:

HEBREWS 13:1-4a, 5-6b

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels. Be mindful of prisoners as if sharing their imprisonment, and of the ill-treated as of yourselves, for you also are in the body.

Let marriage be honored among all and the marriage bed be kept undefiled. Let your life be free from love of money but be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never forsake you or abandon you."

Thus we may say with confidence:

"The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid.

The word of the Lord.

NEW TESTAMENT READING:

1 PETER 3:1-9

A reading from the first letter of Saint Peter.

Beloved

You wives should be subordinate to your husbands so that, even if some disobey the word, they may be won over without a word by their wives' conduct when they observe your reverent and chaste behavior. Your adornment should not be an external one: braiding the hair, wearing gold jewelry, or dressing in fine clothes, but rather the hidden character of the heart, expressed in the imperishable beauty of a gentle and calm disposition, which is precious in the sight of God.

For this is also how the holy women who hoped in God once used to adorn themselves and were subordinate to their husbands; thus Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him "lord." You are her children when you do what is good and fear no intimidation.

Likewise, you husbands should live with your wives in understanding, showing honor to the weaker female sex, since we are joint heirs of the gift of life, so that your prayers may not be hindered.

Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another, compassionate, humble. Do not return evil for evil, or insult for insult; but, on the contrary, a blessing, because to this you were called, that you might inherit a blessing.

The word of the Lord.

NEW TESTAMENT READING:

I JOHN 3:18-24 D12

A reading from the first letter of Saint John.

Children, let us love one another not in word or speech but in deed and truth. Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.

And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit that he gave us.

The word of the Lord.

NEW TESTAMENT READING:

1 JOHN 4:7-12

A reading from the first letter of Saint John.

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love, does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us.

The word of the Lord.

NEW TESTAMENT READING:

REVELATION 19:1, 5-9a

A reading from the book of Revelation.

I, John, heard what sounded like the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying: "Alleluia! Salvation, glory, and might belong to our God."

A voice coming from the throne said: "Praise our God, all you his servants, and you who revere him, small and great."

Then I heard something like the sound of a great multitude or the sound of rushing water or mighty peals of thunder, as they said: "Alleluia! The Lord has established his reign, our God, the almighty.

Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory.

For the wedding day of the Lamb has come, his bride has made herself ready. She was allowed to wear a bright, clean, linen garment." The linen represents the righteous deeds of the holy ones. Then the angel said to me, "Write this: blessed are those who have been called to the wedding feast of the Lamb."

Gospel Reading for a Catholic Wedding

The final reading in a Catholic wedding is always chosen from one of the four Gospels; Matthew, Mark, Luke and John . These were written during the latter half of the first century A.D. Each tells the story of Jesus through the memory of a distinct Christian community,

Many of the gospel readings for Catholic weddings are not explicitly about marriage but about the love of Christians for one another and about the call to discipleship. The passages remind us that Christian marriage is a particular way of living out one's vocation to love and to be a disciple of Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL READING:

MATTHEW 5:1-12a

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

MATTHEW 5:13-16

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lamp stand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

MATTHEW 7:21, 24-29 -longer

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to his disciples: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven. "Everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock. The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and buffeted the house. But it did not collapse; it had been set solidly on rock. And everyone who listens to these words of mine but does not act on them will be like a fool who built his house on sand. The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and buffeted the house. And it collapsed and was completely ruined."

When Jesus finished these words, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

MATTHEW 7:21, 24-25 - shorter

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to his disciples: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven. Everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock. The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and buffeted the house. GOSPEL READING:

MATTHEW 19:3-6

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

Pharisees approached Jesus, and tested him, saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause whatever?" He said in reply, "Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator 'made them male and female' and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, man must not separate."

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

MATTHEW 22:35-40

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

One of the Pharisees, a scholar of the law, tested Jesus by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

MARK 10:6-9

A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark.

Jesus said:

"From the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.' So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate."

The Gospel of the Lord

GOSPEL READING:

JOHN 2:1-11

A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

There was a wedding in Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come."

His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from, although the servers who had drawn the water knew, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him,

"Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now."

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs in Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

JOHN 15:9-12

A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

JOHN 15:12-16

A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples: "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

JOHN 17:20-26 - longer

A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

Jesus looked up to heaven and prayed: " I pray not only for my disciples, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me. And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me.

Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world. Righteous Father, the world also does not know you, but I know you, and they know that you sent me. I made known to them your name and I will make it known, that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them."

The Gospel of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING:

JOHN 17:20-23 - shorter

A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me."
